16th ISO/DATAGRO Conference

Wednesday, 4 May 2023

REGISTRATION IS OPEN

The International Sugar Organization (ISO) is excited to announce the 16th edition of the CITI ISO DATAGRO New York Sugar & Ethanol Conference, taking place on May 4th, 2023, at 583 Park Avenue, New York, USA, bringing together experts from the sugar and ethanol industry to discuss the challenges and opportunities in the sector

Since its very first edition, this conference, which is recognized as the official technical event of the New York Sugar Dinner, brings together industry experts, influential players, and financial specialists from the global sugar and ethanol community to discuss the main issues facing these industries. Hosted by the ISO in collaboration with CITI and DATAGRO, this conference aims to provide valuable insights into the future of sugar and ethanol sectors globally.

The conference will feature several keynote speakers and panel discussions, focusing on the future of the sugar and ethanol industries and their perspectives for the coming years. Attendees will also have the opportunity to network with other participants and gain valuable insights into the global market trends.

Registration for the conference is now open, and interested parties can click the link below to secure their seats.
